Ron,

Thank you for the explanation. While it is a very long extension, and one that would never be granted in the Eastern District of Virginia, I accept your offer under the circumstances.

Please confirm that the documents will be available for pickup on 9/30.

In addition, please email me a few dates in October and November, so we can take Doug Wigdor's deposition.

Thank you.

Subject: RE: Subpoena to Wigdor

Given travel and summer vacation schedules and the fact that Mr. Wigdor was recently in a bicycle accident, we will not be able to respond until September 30. If that is unacceptable to you, please serve Wigdor LLP personally (and properly), and we'll make our request to the S.D.N.Y.

Many thanks,

Ron

Subject: Subpoena to Wigdor

Ron,

Thank you for this email. I can't agree to give Wigdor that much time. I will check with our process server and, if necessary, have Wigdor served again.

I would be willing to extend the deadline for response to August 31. Let me know if that is acceptable.

Dear Mr. Biss:

We represent Wigdor LLP. We understand you attempted service on our client late last week, but the service attempted did not comply with applicable law. We remind you of the letter we sent early last week, to which you did not respond, offering to accept service on certain conditions, including that Wigdor LLP have until September 30, 2019 to respond to the subpoena. We would appreciate the courtesy of a response.

Best,

Ron Minkoff
